

ITALIAN PRINCE WILL MARRY BRITISH NURSE

LONDON, June 7.—Young Prince Doria, one of the richest noblemen in Italy, is now in England making the acquaintance of the family of the English hospital nurse under whose care he recovered from tuberculosis and whom he is now determined to marry.

When the need for her services ended the nurse proposed to return home, but the young prince refused to part with her, and, although she is the older, he asked her to marry him. Prince Doria's mother was English, being the sister of the Duke of Newcastle, and, curiously enough, his fiancée hails from Newcastle-on-Tyne. Prince Doria's father was a great admirer of the late Mrs. Parker Deacon, later known as Mrs. Baldwin, to whom he left a handsome fortune.

GEORGES HEADING STRAIGHT FOR K. O., IS PICKETT'S TIP

Wine in Frenchman Will Make Him Soft for Dempsey, Says Moral Battler.

By MILDRED MORRIS, International News Service.

Prohibition, ably assisted by J. Dempsey, will "kay" France's hope on July 2.

Take this tip straight from Deets Pickett, whose record as a "moral" battler is second only to that held by the Rev. Wilbur F. Craft, blue law "champ" of the United States, and lay your bets on Dempsey.

Officially Pickett is known as research secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Figuratively speaking, he donned fighting gloves today and assisted by his typewriter, swung a wicked right and left at the State of New Jersey and the international battle to be staged on its soil.

Right thinking Americans ought to rise up and stop the fight, said Pickett.

Commenting on feminine interest in the affair, he said:

"Women who see such brutalizing, demoralizing exhibitions frequently in the end become things that are certainly not women."

Brief but terrible will be Carpenter's career on the Jersey City firing line, Pickett predicted.

Parbleu!—as they say in the sporting circles of gay Paris—the beautiful Georges will emerge from the fight with all his beauty ruined. As Pickett visualized him, his charming nose will be split, his lovely eyes blackened and his slim but well-tuned ears all swollen and everything. And all because Georges, loyal son of wicked France, not only looks on wine that is red but drinks it and occasionally sips the stuff while in training. Which, as Pickett sees it, is a lesson to ambitious young America. It should show said young America the blessings of prohibition and the devastation that follows in the wake of Demon Rum.

"French athletes are raised on wine from babyhood," said Pickett. "Carpenter's wine drinking will cut down his endurance. He will last in the fight only a short time as a result."

Has Pickett a word of praise for Dempsey, America's wireless hero? He has NOT. The fight ought to be stopped, he said, but what's the use? A revival of "loose morals" is sweeping over the land, according to Pickett, and even the Rev. Wilbur F. Craft can't stop it.

"Not since '95, when everything was wide open, has there been such a loosening up of morals in the United States," he said. "There is widespread revival of gambling and other evils. Prize fighting is a brutal phase of this loosening up of morals."

Expressing his feelings further on the Dempsey-Carpenter mill, Pickett said in a typewritten statement: "Right thinking Americans ought to see that this is the last fight fought on American soil. It is astonishing that any State in the American Union would tolerate an exhibition, not only bloody and brutal in itself but intended to appeal to all that is abnormal in the average man."

"Prize fighting will simply increase the crop of thugs and brutes. Gambling—sure thing gambling—and perversion follow the trail of prize fighting. It is not American and can never be American."

TEACHER SEEKS OWNER OF CIVIL WAR LOVELOCK

Dead Veteran Asked Taken Be Returned to Old Sweetheart.

WINSTED, Conn., June 7.—Carrying a needlecase inclosing a lock of hair which his father carried through the civil war, Prof. Harlow F. Dean, of Topeka, Kan., is searching the neighborhood of Litchfield for the sweetheart to whom his dying father wished the lock returned.

Captain Dean, the veteran, died May 1, aged eighty-four. He was buried in West Stockbridge, Mass. Now his son is trying to find Miss Gertrude L. Baldwin or her survivors, to turn over the love-lock, which bears the following message:

"West Hartland, Conn., Aug. 24, 1918.

"Keeping this case, I return it to you thinking you would like to see the color of your hair when you gave it to me in Litchfield."

The message was written on a visiting card, to which the hair was fastened.

Captain Dean's efforts to learn of Miss Baldwin's whereabouts after the Civil War were futile.

39 Texas Convicts Escape.

BRAZORIA, Tex., June 7.—Poses today are trying to round up thirty-nine escaped prisoners from the Clements State prison farm. The convicts, all Mexicans, cut a hole through the prison wall and escaped.

OVEN BAKED BEANS with Tomato Sauce

"Beans are extremely high in food value and rich in flavor—if they are prepared the right way. Heinz Baked Beans are baked upon the same good principles established by our New England mothers. Slowly baked in real ovens by dry heat.

"Baked to a tempting golden brown—until each bean is mealy, mellow, and delicious clear through to its center.

"Taste good? Why, nothing can compare with them. The delicious tang of Heinz Tomato Sauce is blended right into the oven baked flavor of the beans—and the result is perfection.

"Economical? Of course! You get full food value in every bean. Complete goodness in every can."
